MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Director for Operations

SUBJECT: Publication by FDD of Reference Aid on Soviet Scientific and Related Organizations

REFERENCE: Your Memorandum of 3 April 1953

1. In referenced memo you requested approval for the publication of subject Reference Aid. As you will note from the buck slip attached, we have solicited the views of OSI. Since this most interested Office feels such an aid would help its researchers, and since OIC has no reason to feel otherwise, we suggest that the Reference Aid be pursued.

2. It is self-evident that FBB might benefit from collaboration both with OSI and OCD/BI and OCD/IR.

3. The delay in achieving this approval is much regretted.

25X1A

1. Referenced authorization has been used for but one publication, i.e., [redacted] prepared by Foreign Documents Division, [redacted] for unclassified dissemination in December 1951.

2. Foreign Documents Division now proposes to publish under the "Reference Aid" authorization, "A List of Soviet Scientific and Related Organizations, (Russian-English, and English-Russian)". The classification of this publication would be CONFIDENTIAL.

3. Format of the proposed publication would be as follows:

- a. Size -- 10 by 14
- b. Number of pages -- approximately 190 (approximately 95 sheets)
- c. Introductory pages and explanatory notes
- d. Six thousand entries alphabetically listed in Russian and in English, totaling 12,000 entries.
- e. Cover similar to Foreign Documents Division Periodical Abstracts with reference aid substituted for "Periodical Abstracts" in the title box. Specific title as noted above printed below box, center of the page.

4. It is estimated that distribution of this publication will not require more than the average specified in the reference authorization (125).

5. Your approval for this specific publication and other similar publications under the Reference Aid title is requested.
